SECTION 809 PANEL

Daily Media Clips

February 16, 2018

The Section 809 Panel is a congressionally mandated panel designed to be a catalyst that restores agility and simplicity to defense acquisition through bold and effective recommendations.

No one has said federal procurement is simple. But it's way more complicated than it has to be. The Section 809 Panel looked closer at Defense procurement and found that the word "subcontractor" has around 27 different definitions.

The rules make fine distinctions between commercial and commercial-off-the-shelf. The Panel has proposed numerous reforms. Joseph Petrillo, procurement attorney with Petrillo and Powell, joined Federal Drive with Tom Temin to discuss the reforms he believes will be most beneficial.
